POLI'S

Three Bridgeport boys—the O'Neil brothers—hold a prominent spot in the big program at Poli's for the first half of the week. These boys, known to theatricals as Elkins, Fay and Elkins, are warm favorites here. They have a very clever offering combining musical suggestions offered in a novel way.

Another attractive feature of the big program is the College Inn Sextette, late features with Miss Elsie Janis in "Miss Information." This is a snappy musical offering that is sure to be a winner here as it was on Broadway.

The photoplay feature brings here Emily Stevens, the talented, emotional star in "The House of Tears," a gripping five part drama of society.

Other attractions in the vaudeville bill include: Lillian Gonne, "the sassy little girl" famous in Gus Edwards' revue, and her partner, Eddie Livesy, in a sparkling offering of songs and dances; The Leap Year Girls, presenting an unusual sketch that has been a big hit in the larger vaudeville houses.

The Great Richards, in an artistic creation of art and color, and Collins and Clark, two merry maids, in a classy song revue.

PLAZA

Willard Mack, world-famous actor-author, whose brilliant pen is responsible for such Broadway successes as "Kick In" and "So Much for So Much," is to appear in the leading role in the Plaza's big Triangle feature for the first half of the week, "Aloha Oe." Supporting Mr. Mack is Edith Markey and an all star cast and their work in the picture has been branded by one of America's leading critics as superb.

The story is a rather peculiar one, but so cleverly worked out that the interest of the spectator is not allowed to lag for even a moment. A talented young lawyer with an insatiable craving for drink has just won a case for the defense in a sensational murder trial when he is spirited away by his friends and he awakes to find himself on board ship bound for South America where it is hoped his may cause his dissipation. When Kalanuiwe, a Southern Island Princess, makes her appearance on the scene, Cupid gets busy with his arrow and affairs from here on take on a different aspect.

Charles Murray and many other popular favorites will be seen in "The Great Vacuum Robbery," a two part Triangle-Keystone comedy. Murray as a "dime novel" detective and his trusted assistant attempt to locate a leak in the treasury of a large banking firm and their efforts keep the laughs coming in "chunks" until the final scene.

The Three Floods in an acrobatic novelty that is as sensational as it is funny will headline the vaudeville program.

The Dixie Four in a repertoire of "songs of the Sixties" will also be on hand in a singing fantasy that is expected to delight.

Weston and Young are a classy pair who will make the most of the 15 minutes allowed them to set over their comedy singing and talking skit.

The Krellies in a high class musical offering will complete the bill.

EMPIRE

A special Paramount program has been arranged by the management of Keeney's Empire theatre, for today, tomorrow, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Lou Tellegen, the international star and former leading man with the "Divine Sarah" will again be seen in a five part Lesky Paramount masterpiece entitled, "The Unknown" in the feature attraction at the above theatre today and tomorrow.

In the "Unknown" this famous actor will be seen in a character entirely different from anything he has played before. He is on the screen, Tellegen scored a brilliant success in the Paramount feature, "The Explorer" which was featured at this theatre a few weeks ago but in his latest feature he outdoes all previous efforts.

Numerous other interesting as well as entertaining feature photoplays will be shown in conjunction with the feature.

LYRIC

Tonight and for the current week, Cecil Spooner and her company, will present a play destined to do good to everybody, particularly "Every Girl" who witnesses this performance at the Lyric. Not only is it a correct and direct "white slavery" picture of metropolitan life, but it is also to the point in its method, meaning and straight purposes. "Little Lost Sister" possesses a story which means a whole lot to girls, especially in factory towns and cities. "Little Lost Sister" is undoubtedly the most highly endorsed human play the stage has as yet given. It is a "white slavery" exposure, and tells the story of the country girl entering the big city, and the character who contends with Hon. Edmund Beale, chairman of the Illinois Vice commission, wrote the following article, among hundreds of others: "Every mother, every father, every girl—yes, even every brother—should witness a performance of 'Little Lost Sister.' It teaches the very highest order of lesson that humanity has to learn in the days of struggle and strife."

In the usual broad gauge manner, the Cecil Spooner management will present "Little Lost Sister" on a perfectly strong scale. Miss Spooner as "Mary Saunders" will have a part in which the popular little actress will demonstrate her very best dramatic ability. "Little Lost Sister" will undoubtedly prove to be the big dramatic triumph of the Cecil Spooner stock season thus far, now in their seventeenth week.

WEEK-END AUTOMOBILE
SMASH-UPS SEND MANY TO LOCAL HOSPITALS

Several automobile accidents, none fatal, occurred in this city during the week-end. An automobile owned by C. Centefante of 1916 Main street and a car owned by Stanley Olshaw of 275 East Main street, Waterbury, collided yesterday afternoon at Railroad avenue and Main street. Each driver blamed the other. The damage to the cars was slight.

Joseph O'Brien of Federal avenue, and William Burrows of Southport, are in St. Vincent's hospital where they are recovering from a shock and lacerations received when they were hurled from their motorcycles at Liberty corner, Fairfield, Saturday night. They were found unconscious on the road and taken to the home Dr. William H. Donaldson, who ordered their removal to a hospital. The men on the cycles were traveling at a fast rate when rounding the corner.

Albert G. Langensberger of 1380 Park avenue, superintendent of the George C. Batcheller company, was released by the police late Saturday evening as it is his belief that he was not to blame for the accident at Clinton and North avenues Saturday afternoon when his automobile struck a motorcycle ridden by Otto Hungerford of 78 Cleveland avenue. Langensberger brought the cyclist to his home before the police learned of the affair. Hungerford's condition is not serious.

A one-ton automobile truck, owned by Thomas Carr, soda water dealer of Walnut Beach, driven by Richard Leach, while on a return trip to Milford, backed off the bank of the Housatonic river on the north of the Milford side of the bridge and settled in the river. The driving chain slipped. It was at first rumored about the city that a touring car with a party of five people had gone over the miniature precipice. Leach was uninjured.

It is estimated that 3,000 persons enjoyed skating on Bruce's pond yesterday afternoon. The crowd began to gather at 1 o'clock and many remained until late last night. The pond was like glass yesterday but the skating surface was spoiled by the storm of today.

Nearly every other little pond had its contingent of skaters also. At Seaside park Sgt. Keegan refused to allow skating as he did not think the ice safe enough. At Beardsey park between 300 and 400 skaters enjoyed the sport. The pond at the Brooklawn Country club had some 500 skaters. The ice house pond in the Brooklawn district also had its crowd of men and woman, boys and girls. Many went to ponds in Fairfield. Altogether it is estimated that 5,000 residents of the city enjoyed this glorious sport yesterday.

CHEER UP—BRIGHTEN UP!

ANY doctor will tell you that "the blues" is frequently a symptom of constipation and its attendant evil, auto-intoxication. Take care of constipation and "the blues" will take care of itself.

But laxatives and cathartics won't cure constipation. In fact the indiscriminate drugging of the system with such remedies only aggravates the condition and tends to make constipation chronic.

Because of the evident dangers of the laxative habit, physicians everywhere are advocating the use of Nujol, a pure white mineral oil, which does not drug or physic but which acts as an intestinal lubricant.

Nujol softens the contents of the intestines and lubricates the entire tract, so promoting normal evacuations. It is purely mechanical in its action, and is not absorbed into the system. Consequently it is not habit forming and may be taken in any quantity without harm.

Write for booklet, "The Rational Treatment of Constipation." If your druggist cannot supply you, we will send you a pint bottle of Nujol prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.
